Dear Director Kappos:

This is in regard to the applications for patent term extension for U.S. Patent Nos. 7,411,050; 7,449,185; 6,740,522; 7,527,790; and 7,097,834, filed by Amgen Inc., under 35 U.S.C. § 156. The human biological product claimed by the patents is PROLIA (denosumab), which was assigned biologics license application (BLA) No. BL125320.

A review of the Food and Drug Administration's official records indicates that this product was subject to a regulatory review period before its commercial marketing or use, as required under 35 U.S.C. § 156(a)(4). Our records also indicate that it represents the first permitted commercial marketing or use of the product, as defined under 35 U.S.C. § 156(f)(1).

The BLA was approved on June 1, 2010, which makes the submission of the patent term extension application on July 27, 2010, timely within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. § 156(d)(1).

Should you conclude that the subject patents are eligible for patent term extension, please advise us accordingly. As required by 35 U.S.C. § 156(d)(2)(A) we will then determine the applicable regulatory review period, publish the determination in the Federal Register, and notify you of our determination.

Please let me know if we can be of further assistance.

Sincerely yours,

Jane A. Axelrad
Associate Director for Policy
Center for Drug Evaluation and Research
